Film, Drama & Music Club and Faculty of Arts, in association with Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) of Pillai HOC College of Arts, Science and Commerce, Rasayani (PHCASC), are organising a Movie Screening followed by an interactive session on film appreciation on December 10, 2021.

The objective of Film screening is to develop different cinematic perspective and how to identify the hidden subtext of human emotions. Film appreciation as a subject helps us to explore different realms in cinema and how commercial cinema has created a superficial visual experience, whereas world's greatest classics have discovered nuanced human consciousness. This exercise will cultivate an understanding in them which would help them become better students of cinema.

This activity is exclusively designed for BAMMC students. However, interested students from other streams will also be welcomed.

Dear All,

Department of Hospitality, Pillai HOC College of Arts, Science and Commerce successfully conducted Webinar titled "Emerging Trends in Hospitality Industry ". The Webinar was conducted on 4th March, 2022 from 3.00 pm to 4.00 pm.

On behalf of PHCASC, Dept of Hospitality we thank the Speaker, Mr. Kushal Mangwani , Associate Consultant- Client Engagement Experience – Capgemini for a very informative and insightful session.

There are a variety of Hospitality and Tourism trends that are based on more general changes in consumer behaviour, like the need for healthy and organic food & drinks, sustainability, personalized service the rising demand for digitization and the use of technology.

Hospitality Trends generally look at new consumer behaviour, new technology, and the new business theories. The Speaker gave an important insight into how the students can stay updated with different trends developing in the Hospitality Industry. The event was organised for the students of BSc. Hospitality Studies, PHCASC. In all 14 students from different streams attended the webinar. The webinar concluded with the Question and Answer session.

We would like to thank our Principal, Dr. Lata Ma'am for her guidance and motivation in organising the event. We also thank our Vice Principal, Binit Sir for his constant support and regular coordination.

The participant will receive with the Certificate of Participation.

The overall participation and the enthusiasm in itself spoke the volume of success that this event has met with.

Thanks & Regards,
Team IQAC

SPIRAL GALAXY

Spirals are the most common galaxy shape. Galaxies group together in superclusters and superclusters group together in walls. These walls or filaments of numerous superclusters, gravitationally bound and separated by large areas of void, are the largest known structures in the universe.

The Milky Way's dust obscures us from seeing the depth of these filaments or sheets, so we do not yet know the exact shape of these walls.

The Milky Way has a several spiral arms, each of them a logarithmic spiral of about 12 degrees to an interesting note, spiral galaxies appear to defy Newtonian Physics. As early as 1925, Astronomers realised that, since the angular speed of rotation of galactic disk varies with distance from the center, the spiral arms should become curved as galaxies rotate. Subsequently, after a few rotations, spiral arms should start to wind inward a galaxy. But they don't. Hence the so-called winding problem. The clue on the outside, it would seem, is a velocity higher than expected - a velocity boost of the cosmos that helps preserve its shape.

Applications of Fibonacci Sequence

- Pankaj Chauran

The Fibonacci sequence is one of the most famous formulas in mathematics. It was discovered in 19th century by the famous Mathematician Leonardo Fibonacci. The Fibonacci sequence is defined as the sequence of numbers in which each number in the sequence is equal to the sum of two numbers before it. The Fibonacci sequence is given as 0, 1, 1, 2, 3, 5, 8, 13, ... and denoted by f_n .

Fibonacci sequence have their applications and widely almost everywhere. Below listed are some applied applications:-

- 1) Petals of Flowers:- White lily (3), Iris (6), Wild rose (5), Daffodil (6), etc..
- 2) Fibonacci spirals:- There are 55 spirals spiraling out and 34 spirals spiraling in on most daisy and sunflower.
- 3) Fibonacci in Organs of human body:- Every human has two hands, each one of them have five fingers.
- 4) Fibonacci in Music:- The intervals between keys on a piano of the same scales are Fibonacci numbers.
- 5) Fibonacci in Pascal's Triangle:- Diagonal sums in Pascal's Triangle are the Fibonacci numbers.
- 6) Fibonacci in coding:- Golden ratio of Fibonacci sequence is used in coding.

The Fibonacci sequence is one of the useful formulas for us.

	Application of Fibonacci sequence The Fibonacci sequence was first discovered by Leonardo Pisano. He was known by his nickname, Fibonacci. The Fibonacci sequence is a set of numbers that starts with a one, followed by a one, and proceeds based on the rule that each number is equal to the sum of the preceding two numbers. The Fibonacci sequence can alternately be written as 1, 1, 2, 3, 5, 8, 13, 21, 34, 55, 89, 144, 233, Petals on Flowers Probably none of us have ever taken the time to examine very carefully the number or arrangement of petals on a flower. If we were to do so, we would find that the number of petals on a flower that still has all of its petals intact and has not lost any, for many flowers is a Fibonacci number. Fibonacci Spirals The Fibonacci numbers are found in the arrangement of seeds on flower heads. Inside the first of many plants, we can observe the presence of Fibonacci order. There are 35 spirals spiraling outwards and 34 spirals spiraling inwards in most daisy or sunflower blossoms. Pine cones clearly show the Fibonacci spiral. Fibonacci spiral can be found in cauliflower. The Fibonacci numbers can also be found in Pineapples and Bananas. Bananas have 3 or 5 flat sides and Pineapple scales have Fibonacci spirals in sets of 8, 13, and 21. Fibonacci in Organs of Human Body Humans exhibit Fibonacci characteristics. Every human has two hands, each one of these has five fingers and each finger has three parts which are separated by two knuckles. All of these numbers fit into the sequence. Moreover, the lengths of bones in a hand are in Fibonacci numbers. Fibonacci in Music The Fibonacci sequence of numbers is manifested in music widely. The numbers are present in the octave, the foundational unit of melody and harmony. Stradivarius used the Fibonacci sequence to make the greatest string instruments ever created. Fibonacci in Pascal's Triangle The Fibonacci Numbers are also applied in Pascal's Triangle. Entry is the sum of the two numbers on either side of it but in the row above. Diagonal sums in Pascal's Triangle are the Fibonacci numbers. Fibonacci in Distance Take any two consecutive numbers from this series as example 13 and 21 or 34 and 55. Now the smaller number is in miles & the other one is Kilometer or the bigger number is in Kilometers & the smaller one is Miles. 34 Miles = 54.72 Kilometers = 55 Kilometers 21 Kilometers = 13.05 Miles = 13 Miles Fibonacci in Coding Recently Fibonacci sequence and Golden Ratio are of great interest to researchers in many fields of science including high Energy Physics, Quantum Mechanics, Cryptography, and Coding. It has been found that communication may be secured by the use of Fibonacci numbers. A similar application of Fibonacci in Cryptography is described here by a sample illustration.

was an ancient Ionian Greek philosopher and the eponymous founder of Pythagoreanism. His political and religious teachings were well known in Magna Graecia and influenced the philosophies of Plato, Aristotle, and, through them, Western philosophy. Knowledge of his life is clouded by legend, but he appears to have been the son of Mnesarchus, a gem-engraver on the island of Samos.

Rasayani, has organised a webinar on Introduction to Photography - A Picture Perfect Moment. The objective of the webinar was to introduce student the new media age of information and technology. As Photography can inspire y to travel, enjoy life, and celebrate the moments. Taking pictures inspires to have the desire to experience more. However, just clicking pictures does not suffice the objective of making career out of it. It requires certain set of skills, and an artistic perspective. Taking into consideration the above factors we conducted a webinar as a part of alumni initiative and invited our alumina who have marked their career in the field of photography. Through this webinar the alumni discussed with students the technicalities in photography and how to refine the skills in order to make a career in the field of photography. The webinar was interactive and ended with positive feedback amongst the students.

Report:-	 Mahatma Education Society's Pillai HOC College of Arts, Science and Commerce , Rasayani Report on Farewell Day Celebrations 2022

	The Cultural Association and Students' Council in association with the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) of Pillai HOC College of Arts, Science and Commerce, Rasayani, jointly organised an offline Farewell Day celebration for the final year students of the undergraduate and postgraduate courses. The event witnessed various emotions as the students found themselves at the verge of moving away from their campus. Moments and memories were created and experienced at the farewell day celebrations. The students participated in huge numbers taking a stride in style as they were decked up in western wear. The event began with the Principal of PHCASC, Dr. Lata Menon, lighting the Lamp followed by Vice Principal, Mr. Binit Kumar and few other faculty members. Zahara Khandalawala from SYBA and Jay Thakur from SYBMS were the hosts for the event. The Principal addressed the students and encouraged them to live a life full of possibilities. Dr. Lata Madam ended her speech with a beautiful rendition of two old classics. The event witnessed singers, dancers and mimic artists from the Second year and Third year classes performing their magic. Memories were made and captured. Students shared photos of the memories they've made in the past three years. The faculty members worked toward making a video that played these memories on screen. Refreshments and certificate files were distributed to all the third year students as a complement from the college. The event got a positive response from all the students and ended on a sweet and sour note as students looked for new beginnings and yet knew they'd be missing the time spent at the college.
