Report: -	The Internal Quality Assurance Cell organised an Alumni Meet on 28 April 2023, to provide a platform for our alumni to meet and interact with their batchmates and faculty members of the college. The objective of the event was to promote and foster effective interaction between the alumni and the institution, as a part of our strategic plan to strengthen alumni engagements. The meet was planned on the same day as the Degree Certificate Distribution Ceremony, so as to ensure maximum alumni participation and registration. The event commenced with a prayer followed by welcome address. The IQAC Coordinator, Ms. Remya Madan Gopal opened the event and Vice Principal, Prof. Binit Kumar addressed the alumni with enlightening words. Sir spoke in length about how the college is evolving with tremendous contribution from our alumni. Sir also thanked for their cooperation and promptness to be a part of many alumni events organised by IQAC or respective programmes. The address was followed by felicitation of academic toppers among alumni of previous years, as a part of token of appreciation by the college. An alumni interaction session followed the felicitation in which the alumni shared their experiences. Many of alumni registered themselves to our alumni association and also made contributions for the same. They also shared the details of their higher education or placements to encourage and motivate the current lot of students. The session ended with a note of happiness and with a promise to stay connected with the Alma Mater. After national anthem, snacks were served to alumni participants who attended the event.
