WHEREAS the first party is an NGO registered as Shree Siddhivinayak Social Sanstha. It is a non-profit organization has introduced 'Zero Garbage' venture which is an extension of the initiative taken up by the Ex Municipal Councillor of Panvel, Mr. Ganesh Kadu, involving educational institutions. It was established in 2001, by Mr. Ganesh Kadu, the founder and Secretary. As a part of this campaign, the students provided specially designed baskets with cultures wherein the wet waste produced in kitchens can be added and be gradually transformed to manure. They demonstrated the techniques involved and the fundamentals to be taken care of in creating odourless and rich manure. As the first step towards extending a helping hand for the cause, they explained the importance and necessity of segregation of wastes and how the waste produced from every household can be converted to organic manure.

AND WHEREAS, the party of the second half has been established under educational institution under University of Mumbai, to provide for education and research in various branches of Sciences and Arts thereby, disseminate knowledge.

Objective:

To extent our co-curricular activities for the overall development of the students and instilling the concept to protect, preserve and safe guard the environment based on the slogan 'Reduce, Reuse, Recycle'. The Sanstha has taken steps to create awareness among the students of the institution on the subject of disposal of waste, largely being seen as an environmental hazard. It is proven to have negative effects on habitat, wildlife and biodiversity. Waste disposal is not sustainable and can have negative implications for future generations.

The general objective of this Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) is to stimulate and facilitate the development of collaborative and mutually beneficial programs which serve to enhance awareness on significance protecting the environment, the intellectual life and cultural development on our students and to acknowledge our social responsibilities and contribute to increase and spread awareness of importance on environment to diverse sections of the society with commitment and mutual understanding. Thus, Shree Siddhivinayak Social Sanstha and Pillai HOC College of Arts, Science and Commerce, Rasayani, have agreed to be in support of their mutual interests in the field of education and social service. The work initially will be for a period of three years which can be renewed further from time to time as per the mutually agreed terms and conditions.

The two parties will:

- a) Co-operate in the exchange of information relating to their organised activities in creating awareness, teaching and cultural aspects in fields of mutual interests
- b) Promote appropriate joint cultural and social activities with particular emphasis primarily on protecting the environment among all sections of the society
- c) Endeavour to encourage students and staff to spend periods of time in the social activities and spread social awareness
- d) Conduct meetings, seminars and briefing sessions as mutually agreed between the parties prior to commencement of this activity

e) Conduct activities on environmental and socially relevant issues mutually agreed between the parties

The aim of the Memorandum of Understanding shall be to achieve a broad balance in the respective contributions and benefits of the collaboration, and this shall be subject to periodic review by both parties. In supporting such an arrangement, all financial matters, including travel costs, are subject to individual negotiation, and will normally be the responsibility of the institutions involved. The host institution agrees to assist in the seeking of appropriate housing, and to provide work space, and technical facilities as appropriate. The other clauses include

- That in case of any dispute or differences between the Parties, the decision of the Principal of the Institution shall be final and binding on the both parties.
- That no new activity involving the students of the institution shall be undertaken by the NGO without the prior approval of the Principal of the Institution.
- That the Institution shall not be responsible directly, indirectly or vicariously in respect to any act, commission or omission committed by the NGO whether on the campus or the repercussion thereof may take elsewhere. It shall be the sole responsibility of the administrator of the NGO to deal with the unforeseen or untoward circumstances arising with the collaboration
- That under no circumstances, the Institute shall be responsible or answerable for any injury claim, compensation or award of the Court or Statutory Authorities.

In the implementation of specific cooperative programs, a written agreement covering all relevant aspects including funding and the obligations to be undertaken by each party will be negotiated, mutually agreed and formalized in writing, prior to the commencement of the program.

Pillai HOC College of Arts, Science and Commerce, Rasayani, shall not be held liable for any damage that is caused directly or indirectly during social activities. This agreement will take effect from the date of its signing and shall be valid for an unlimited period from that date unless sooner terminated, revoked or modified by mutual written agreement between the Parties, and may be extended by mutual written agreement. Either party may terminate the Agreement at any time during the term by the provision of three months written notice to the other party.
