Dr. Kalyanikutty S, Assistant Professor, Dr. D Y Patil College of Law, Nerul was the resource person of the event. She spoke at length about Gender equality not only as a fundamental human right, but a necessary foundation for a peaceful, prosperous and sustainable world. The resource person enlightened the gathering about the progress over the last decades and also the fact that the world is not on track to achieve gender equality by 2030. She spoke about the Indian legal mechanism i.e Constitution, Legislature, Executive, Judiciary and Family. She highlighted the global scenario sharing the 2021 statistics which talked about the global share of women in lower and single houses of national parliaments and its percentages year wise. She also spoke about its Indian scenario highlighting the fundamental rights, directive principles, fundamental duties, special protection laws for women and child, local self government, national human rights commission, women commission, judicial activism and other lacunas. The world could be a much better place when all forms of discrimination against women, violence and harmful practices diminished. It was followed by a Q&A session. The session concluded with a formal vote of thanks.

A total of 1012 students across all streams attended the session making it a grand success.
