Report:-

The Faculty of Arts, in collaboration with the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) of Pillai HOC College of Arts, Science, and Commerce, Rasayani successfully conducted a Faculty Development Programme (FDP) on Soft Skills Development on April 22, 2024.

The aim of the program was to enhance the soft skills of faculty members, focusing on areas crucial for effective communication and human resource management.

The session commenced with a warm welcome note delivered by Ms. Disha Chotaliya, setting a positive tone for the event. The presence of esteemed dignitaries, including the Principal, Dr. Lata Menon, and Vice-Principal, Mr. Binit Kumar, alongside dedicated faculty members, added significance to the occasion. Mr. Priyesh Keekan Raghavan spoke of the importance of effective communication in corporate settings, emphasizing its role in organizational success and employee engagement. Furthermore, he delved into various strategies and best practices for managing human resources efficiently, fostering a conducive work environment.

The Faculty Development Programme on Soft Skills Development proved to be a resounding success, imparting valuable knowledge and insights to the faculty members of Pillai HOC College of Arts, Science, and Commerce, Rasayani. The event served as a testament to the institution's commitment to academic excellence and professional development. The organizers extend their gratitude to all participants, speakers, and dignitaries for their invaluable contributions to making the program a memorable and enriching experience.

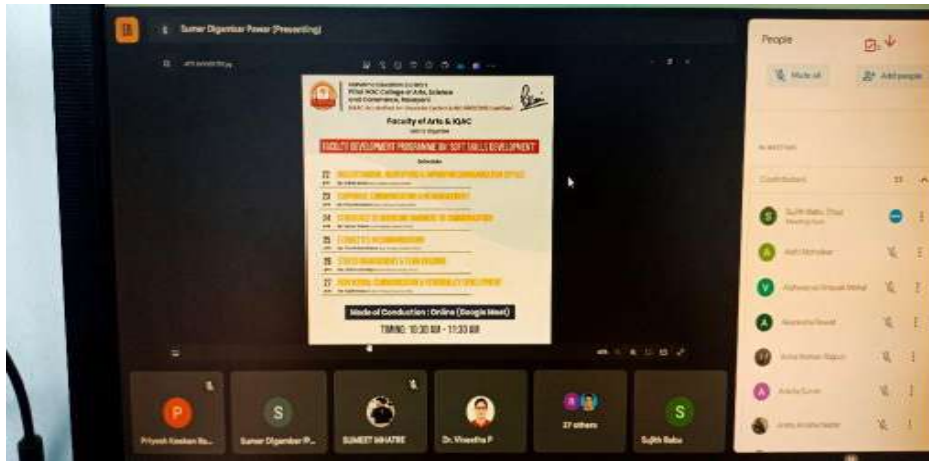

The second session of the Faculty Development Programme titled session on Introduction to Team Building and Stress Management took place on April 23, 2024. Ms. Disha offered varied perspectives on the two important facets like Team Building and Stress Management. She laid emphasis on the importance of handling both the situation and come up with flying colours in one's life.

The third session of the Faculty Development Programme titled session on Strategies to overcome Barriers to Communication took place on April 24, 2024. The session aimed to equip participants with strategies to address and mitigate barriers to communication. The session was concluded with understanding that effective communication is essential for personal and professional success, and that employing these techniques can help overcome barriers and foster meaningful connections.

The fourth session titled "Understanding, identifying and Improving Communication Styles" was taken by Ms. Ankita Surve. The speaker threw light on different communication styles being used on both formal and informal communication platforms. The session was indeed interactive and informative. On the fifth day, Ms. Poorvi Kumbhare spoke about etiquettes in formal communication. She underscored the significance of possessing and maintaining professional etiquettes in communication.

The sixth and the concluding session of the One-week Faculty Development Programme titled Decoding Body Language for Professional Growth was conducted in hybrid mode. The session commenced with a short recap of the previous sessions, followed by an interactive session on body language. The session talked about various types of expressions and discussed the science of body movements, known as Kinesics. Then the speaker highlighted the importance of body language, aiming at training the participants to effectively use their body language for professional growth. The session was followed by an interesting written assessment and an objective assessment to check the success of the FDP.

The Faculty of Arts in association with the Internal Quality Assurance Cell organised a One Day webinar on Intellectual Property Rights titled ‘IPR, Copyrights and Patent Filing in India’ on April 27, 2024. Dr M.M. Betkar was the resource person for the webinar. The workshop provided valuable insights into the legal framework, procedures, and best practices related to copyright and patent filing in India. The webinar was aimed to educate participants on safeguarding their intellectual property assets in the Indian context.

The webinar also provided participants with a comprehensive understanding of intellectual property rights, with a specific focus on copyrights and patent filing in India. Attendees gained valuable insights into the legal framework, procedures, and strategies for safeguarding their creative works and inventions. By implementing the knowledge gained from the webinar, individuals can effectively protect and leverage their intellectual property assets in the Indian market. It was indeed an interesting and knowledgeable session conducted.

The session commenced at 2:30 p.m and ended at 3:30 p.m. It was indeed interactive and informative.
