Report:-	The Faculty of Arts and English Literary Association jointly organised an educational trip to the American Library in Mumbai on December 04, 2025. The programme commenced at 11 a.m., bringing together students and faculty members from Pillai HOC College of Arts, Science & Commerce (Autonomous), Rasayani, and SIES Arts, Science & Commerce College (Autonomous), Sion. Fifteen students from our college participated in the event. The officials of the American Library warmly welcomed the group, setting the tone for a productive and engaging day. The programme began with a short introduction and a quiz on 'Texas', the second-largest state in the U.S. This was followed by an interactive session with U.S. diplomats, who shared valuable insights on the topic 'Cultural and Social Evolution of Texas'. The students actively participated in the session, asking pertinent questions that elicited informative responses from the Consulate officials. This exchange significantly enhanced the quality of the programme, providing the students with a deeper understanding of Texas's rich cultural heritage.

The students were then taken on a guided tour of the library, where they were familiarised with the facilities and membership procedures. The visit provided a unique opportunity for the students to explore the vast collection of American literature and resources available at the library. The programme concluded at 4:30 p.m., marking the end of a fulfilling and enriching experience for all participants.

The programme commenced at 11 a.m., bringing together students and faculty members from Pillai HOC College of Arts, Science & Commerce (Autonomous), Rasayani, and SIES Arts, Science & Commerce College (Autonomous), Sion. Fifteen students from our college participated in the event. The officials of the American Library warmly welcomed the group, setting the tone for a productive and engaging day. The programme began with a short introduction and a quiz on 'Texas', the second-largest state in the U.S. This was followed by an interactive session with U.S. diplomats, who shared valuable insights on the topic 'Cultural and Social Evolution of Texas'. The students actively participated in the session, asking pertinent questions that elicited informative responses from the Consulate officials. This exchange significantly enhanced the quality of the programme, providing the students with a deeper understanding of Texas's rich cultural heritage.

The students were then taken on a guided tour of the library, where they were familiarised with the facilities and membership procedures. The visit provided a unique opportunity for the students to explore the vast collection of American literature and resources available at the library. The programme concluded at 4:30 p.m., marking the end of a fulfilling and enriching experience for all participants.

Report:-	To promote awareness and open dialogue around mental health, the Youth Red Cross, in collaboration with the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC), organized a mental health talk titled "Speak Up: Empowering Minds, Empowering Lives" on 11th October 2025. The event aimed to break the stigma associated with mental health, encourage students to seek help when needed, and promote a culture of empathy, understanding, and emotional well-being on campus. Objective: ● To raise awareness about the importance of mental health among students. ● To provide a safe space for students to express their thoughts and feelings. ● To equip participants with basic knowledge and strategies to manage stress, anxiety, and emotional challenges. ● To reduce stigma and foster open conversations around mental health. The session began with a welcome address by a representative from the Youth Red Cross, followed by opening remarks from a member of the IQAC. A guest speaker (mental health professional/psychologist/counselor) delivered an insightful talk on recognizing signs of mental distress, coping strategies, and the importance of seeking support. Interactive discussions, real-life sharing, and a short Q&A session were conducted to engage participants. Students actively participated, sharing their perspectives and asking meaningful questions about managing academic stress, anxiety, and peer pressure. Informative materials and mental health resources were distributed to the attendees.

Report:-	“Yoga is the journey of the self, through the self, to the self.” – The Bhagavad Gita The Soroptimist Welfare Association (SWA) in association with the Women Development Cell (WDC) of Mahatma Education Society's Pillai HOC College of Arts, Science and Commerce (Autonomous), Rasayani organised a Yoga Shivar on June 24, 2025 to celebrate the 11th International Yoga Day 2025. The objectives of the Yoga Shivar were : 1. To introduce students to the fundamentals of traditional yogic practices. 2. To teach basic yoga asanas (poses) and their benefits. 3. To promote awareness of the importance of mindfulness and relaxation techniques. 4. To inspire students to incorporate yoga into their daily routine for overall health. The Yoga Shivar organized for students aimed to introduce and deepen their understanding of yoga as a holistic practice for physical, mental, and emotional well-being. It was a fun and interactive session, enlightening students about the importance of yoga in day-to-day life. The Shivar was facilitated by experienced yoga instructors who guided participants through various yoga techniques and principles. Techniques for cultivating mindfulness through guided meditation sessions were taught, focusing on relaxation and mental clarity. Practical sessions where students learned and practiced basic asanas such as Tadasana (Mountain pose), Bhujangasana (Cobra pose), and Shavasana (Corpse pose). Emphasis was placed on correct posture, breathing techniques (Pranayama), and alignment. The Yoga Shivar for students was a resounding success in achieving its objectives of introducing yoga as a lifestyle practice beneficial for physical, mental, and emotional well-being. The session received a positive response from the participants. A total of 500 participants made this event a huge success. The session was aligned with Goal 3 (Good health and well-being) of the UN's Sustainable Development Goals.
